EVIDENTLY Kris Kringle has turned over a new leaf. Hard times have made him more practical. He realizes that Shoes make made him more practical. He realizes that Shoes make more lasting, and, consequently more pleasing, presents than toys or fancy goods. Never before have we sold so many Shoes early in December, but very probably it is owing to the high qualities we're offering at such unprecedentedly low prices, as follows. We are temporarily cutting prices on many of our Shoe lines, of which we have too many, to decrease the surplus stock. Here are more

Successful Entertainment-Two

Land Sales-Personal. CHASE CITY, VA., December 18 .- (Spe cial.)-A large and brilliant audience attended a charming entertainment at the Southside Academy last night. The programme was excellent in arrangement, gramme was excellent in arrangement, the performance very creditable, and the occasion greatly enjoyed.

Professor James, principal of the school, in well-chosen words thanked the audience for the interest manifested in his school, and stated that the enrolment of pupils and its prosperous condition exceeded any previous session in the history of the institution.

The prospects for land sales in this section are now more enosuraging than they have been for many years. Recently Potts & Saunders sold to William Has-kins, of England, a tract of 200 acres. Haskins came direct from Liverpool, and has taken possession, and is well and has taken possession, and is well pleased. He paid cash.

Mr. McKnight, of Pennsylvania, has also bought a tract of 473 acres near here, and will take possession next week. Whenever one land-buyer comes others follow, and the cheapness of our lands and our desirable climate very favorably-tenress all prospectors. impress all prospectors.

BEDFORD CITY, VA., December 18.— (Special.)—The farm near town formerly owned by Mrs. Edith Nicholl, daughter of Dean Bradley, of Westminster, Eng-land, has been sold by Mr. J. L. Campbell to Mr. H. C. Walker, of North Dakota, who will shortly remove with his family who will shortly remove with his family to the place. Mr. R. K. Rice, of Rankin, Ill., who purchased the property on the suburbs formerly the home of the late Judge E. C. Burks, will arrive next Thursday with his family, and take possession of the place.

Perhaps a more genuine surprise was never experienced in a place than when the tidings came this morning that Miss Hattie Thurman, who, for some time past has been visiting in Roanoke, had been married to Mr. Johnson Morris, an English gentleman, who had resided here several years, but had recently gone to Texas. None of her family were aware of her intention, and great is the aston-ishment. She is a young lady of much culture and refinement and altogether charming. Mr. Morris has many friends here who admire his talents, and extend to them congratulations and good wishes. At 2:30 P. M. Wednesday Mr. H. M. Walker and Miss Jimmte Stanley were united in marriage at the Baptist par-sonage by Rev. W. S. Royall, After the ceremony the bride and groom took the train for a visit to the father of the groom, Mr. William J. Walker, of Salem. On the same day Mr. Milton B. Creasy and Miss Anna A. Creasy were married at the residence of Mrs. J. M. Talley, Rev. Dr. J. T. Kincannon performing the

SUDDEN DEATHS.

Dr. George at Hollins; J. B. Hanman, in Roanoke.

ROANOKE, VA., December 18.—(Special.)—Dr. Franklyn George, resident physician at Hollins Institute, about six miles north of this city, was found dead in his bed there this morning. On yesterin his bed there this morning. On yester-day and last night, though somewhat complaining, he attended to his accus-tomed duties, and no one thought that he was seriously ill. This morning, how-ever, he failed to appear at breakfast, and upon persons going to his room it was found that he was dead, the end having come apparently without a strug-gle or pain. He had been employed at the institute since September 8th, and for wenty-five years previous to that time had practiced medicine at Danville, Va., where his brother, also a physician, resides. He was held in high esteem by the teachers and pupils at Hollins, not only for his professional skill, but the purity of his character. It is posed that heart-disease was the cause of his death. The remains will be in-

of his death. The remains will be interred at Danville. He was a gallant Confederate scout during the civil war. Dr. George is survived by two sisters—Mrs. T. C. Pilcher, of Fauquier county, whose husband is at present a member of the Virginia House of Delegates, and Mrs. Julius Pilcher, of Fauquier, whose husband was formerly in the same body. Three brothers are living—Dr. Sumter husband was formerly in the same body. Three brothers are living—Dr. Sumter George, of this city; Dr. James George, of Rockbridge county, and a brother who has been located for many years in Missouri. FLOYD COUNTY.

Court Matters-Bonded Warehouse

Abolished. FLOYD, VA., December 18.-(Special.)-County Court has been in session since Tuesday. On the first day a special grand jury found four indictments for felony. The case of the Commonwealth grand July 19thm. Felony. The case of the Commonwealth vs. John Howell and Taz. Martin has occupied the time of the court since Wednesday morning. This is the case in which John Howell and Taz. Martin went to the house of P. H. Huff in the night-time to arrest him, and Huff shot Howell, when he (Huff) says, first shot at him who, he (Huff) says, first shot at him without either Howell or Martin saying anything about having a warrant.

Among the indictments found by the grand fury was one against W. S. Janney and Darius Barton for burning the still-house of Dennis and Daniel Barton. The principal witnesses against Janney and Barton were Cephas W. Guthrie and wife, and while they were before the grand jury W. S. Janney went before a justice and swore out a warrant against them for burning their own house some months ago, in order to defraud the Mutual Benefit, Fire and Insurance Company, a local organization, in which the house and furniture were insured for $120. Soon after the house was burned the loss and Barton were Cephas W. Guthrie and Soon after the house was burned the loss was adjusted, and the company paid Guthrie $120-$160 for the house and $20 on furniture. This warrant was executed on Tuesday night by Constable P. P. Hall. who, it is claimed, found on the premises several pieces of property which Guthrie several pieces of property which Guthrie claimed were burned in the house. It is said that the parties have virtually admitted their guilt. They were committed to jail on Thursday.
